Scientific Brochure

Welcome Message

On behalf of the Secretariat, we extend a cordial welcome to all members, patrons, and colleagues dedicated to advancing maternal and child health.

NARCHI Delhi remains committed to promoting academic excellence in obstetrics, neonatology, and reproductive healthcare through structured education, training, and the dissemination of evidence-based clinical practices. This platform has been developed to provide updates on our scientific activities, including conferences, CMEs, workshops, webinars, and other academic initiatives, while fostering collaboration and professional engagement.

We encourage you to explore this portal and actively participate in our continuing efforts to strengthen knowledge, skills, and clinical outcomes in maternal and neonatal care.

Warm Regards
